

8th LSE/LUMS/MBS Conference*

Exploring the Role of Narrative Reporting in the Corporate Financial Information Environment

15 September 2014

VENUE: ICAEW, Chartered Accountants' Hall, One Moorgate Place, London EC2R 6EA

PROGRAMME:

08:30-09.15am	Registration and coffee
09:15-09.30am	Opening by Martin Walker, Manchester Business School
09:30-10.30am	Mark Clatworthy, University of Bristol Auditor Clauses in Debt Contracts
10:30-11.00am	Coffee and Tea
11.00-12.00am	Craig Lewis, Vanderbilt University and Securities and Exchange Commission "Do Fraudulent Firms Strategically Manage Qualitative Disclosure?"
12:00-13:00pm	Natural Language Processing of UK Annual Report Narratives, Paul Rayson and Mahmoud El-Haj, Lancaster University
13.00-14.30pm	Buffet Lunch and Demonstration of NLP Software Tools
14.30-15:30pm	Richard Carter, Department for Business, Innovation & Skills (BIS)
15.30-16:00pm	Coffee and tea
16:00-17:00pm	Veronika Koller, Lancaster University "Emotion and rationality in UK annual reports: a semantic domain analysis"
17:00-17:15pm	Closing Remarks by Steven Young, Lancaster University Management School
17:30-18:15pm	Steering Group Meeting

<http://ucrel.lancs.ac.uk/cfie/>

* Part of the costs of this event is being paid by ESRC and the ICAEW's charitable trusts.

*

