

USING CORPUS METHODS TO ANALYSE METAPHOR IN DISCOURSE

Friday 10th January 2014, Lancaster University

PROGRAMME

- 10.00 am Registration and coffee/tea
Engineering Building Room A87 (ground floor)
- 10.30 am Welcome and introduction (Elena Semino)
Engineering Building Room B76 (first floor)
- 11.00 am Using Wmatrix (Paul Rayson and Andrew Hardie)
Engineering Building Room B76 (first floor)
- 12.30 pm Lunch
Engineering Building Room A87 (ground floor)
- 1.30 pm Annotating texts with eMargin (Zsófia Demjén)
Engineering Building Room B76 (first floor)
- 2.00 pm Linking eMargin tags with USAS tags in Wmatrix (Steve Wattam)
Engineering Building Room B76 (first floor)
- 2.30 pm Break for coffee/tea
Engineering Building Room A87 (ground floor)
- 2.45 pm Using Wmatrix for metaphor identification and analysis (Jane Demmen, Veronika Koller and Elena Semino)
Engineering Building Room B76 (first floor)
- 4.45 pm End

Participants are welcome to stay until 5.30 pm to use the software and/or ask further questions.

This event is being held as part of the activities of the Metaphor in End-of-Life Care ESRC Project (ES/J007927/1; <http://ucrel.lancs.ac.uk/melc>) and is associated with Lancaster's ESRC Centre for Corpus Approaches to Social Science. For further details on Wmatrix, see <http://ucrel.lancs.ac.uk/wmatrix/>.